Happy Birthday Rosa Parks

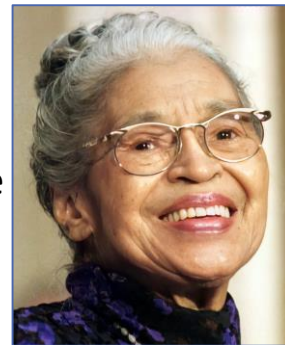

The 5 Ways to Wellbeing Challenge

The children still have chance to take part in this challenge by bringing in a photograph of themselves taking part in an activity linked to one of the '5 Ways to Wellbeing'. These will be displayed in the entrance hall, with House Points given for every entry! Photographs can also be emailed to school; office@bewseylodge.co.uk.

Thank you to everyone who has taken part so far. Here are two of my favourites ...

On Tuesday we celebrated Rosa Parks' birthday. As you know Rosa Parks, is one of our Houses. It is led by Mrs Hopson, with Carly as House Captain and as Prab Vice-Captain. We chose Rosa Parks because she stood up for what she believed in; fairness, equality and respect. She was brave and inspired others to be brave and follow their hearts. She changed the rules for the better and changed lives for millions of black people. Rosa Parks is someone who we feel is a great role model for our children and whose beliefs were very similar to our school values of PRIDE. We celebrated by wearing green for the day and spent time in classes reminding ourselves about Rosa Parks and everything that she did. As usual our amazing kitchen staff joined in the celebrations by serving up a delicious 'green' themed lunch. There were double house points on offer for everyone in Rosa too!

Have a lovely weekend, everyone.
